SUCCESSFUL WORKSHOP FOR 'SLIM' INTERPRETERS.

Members of Sign Language Interpreters Munster (SLIM) participated in a very informative workshop in Limerick during the week including our own Willie White & Veronica White.

The training looked at techniques interpreters can develop in relation to self-care especially for those who work a lot on their own.

Trainer & members of SLIM

Sincere thanks to the trainer & to Carri O' Donnell for organising the training for us.

REMINDER OF IDS 'SUMMERFEST'.

Don't forget the IDS are hosting 'SummerFest' this Sunday at 1pm at Deaf Village Ireland (DVI).

This is a great opportunity to socialise and spend time with members of the Deaf community from around Ireland.

Special guests on the day include characters from Star Wars. The BBC Deaf TV programme 'See Hear' will also be filming & meeting people too.

INTERPRETER ACCESS AT 'DANCING AT LUGHNASA' IN CORK.

A performance of 'Dancing with Lughnasa' will have sign language interpreting access on the 15th of August. It will be held in the Everyman Theatre on Mac Curtain Street in Cork City.

If you would like to attend, mention the word 'Sign Language' when booking and they can give you the best seats. For more info, you can call to the theatre or email info@everymancork.com
