RE-OPEN AFTER SUMMER HOLIDAYS.

Our Centre has re-opened again after our summer holidays.

We hope all our staff members enjoyed their well-deserved time off.

If you require any service or support, & would like to meet a particular staff member, we can offer you an appointment to ensure you get the staff member of your choice. Services are provided on a 'request' basis.

Appointments can be booked during our public opening hours from Mon-Thurs 10am-1pm & 2-5pm and Friday 10am- 1pm. A limited outreach service is also available if you cannot travel to our office in Tralee. Advance booking is preferable.

VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED FOR CASTLEISLAND STREET COLLECTION.

Our service is looking for volunteers for a Street Collection in Castleisland on the 15th of September.

If you are interested and would like to support us, please contact Noreen Cronin or Therese Gallant in our office, by text to 087 633 4687 or via email team1@live.ie

Your support is always greatly appreciated.

DEAF ADULT LITERACY CLASSES (DALs) IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE IDS.

Our service is hoping to provide DALs classes which are supported by the Irish Deaf Society (IDS) from the 26th of September, onwards.

Irish Deaf Society

The provisional timetable will be:

Tuesdays- QQI Level 3 'Personal Development' from 11am-1pm.

Thursday- QQI Level 3 computers from 11am-1pm.

DALs are currently sourcing a tutor for the classes. If interested, please let us know & we will inform the DALs Co-ordinator.
