KILLARNEY CHURCH COLLECTION- THANK YOU.

Our service would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who supported our Church Collection in Killarney over the weekend.

Thank You

Sincere thanks to our staff members & volunteers who helped out on Saturday night and Sunday morning. A special word of thanks to all the parishioners who donated and to all the Churches who allowed us to hold collections outside their Churches.

CAKE SALE FOR ETHIOPIA DEAF PROJECT (EDP).

Our friends in the Ethiopia Deaf Project are holding a 'Cake Sale' on the 26th of November after all masses in the Holy Trinity Church in Cork city.

This event will raise money for the Ambo Lazarist Deaf School (ALDS) in Ethiopia which EDP helped to get built.

If you would like to bake something and donate it to EDP, we know they would love your support. Otherwise, we know they would appreciate it if you could turn up on the day and buy some of their delicious cakes. This will also be a fantastic opportunity to learn about the great work of EDP and the ALDS school in Ambo.

For more information on EDP & ALDS, check out their Facebook page at:

GALLAUDET UNIVERSITY 'MASTERS STUDENT' COMING TO KDRC IN 2018.

Our service will be hosting a 'Masters in Social Work' student from the world-famous Gallaudet University in the New Year.

Patti Canne is also a Deaf sign language user & we are delighted that she has chosen our service for her international internship.

Patti will be based in our service for 3 months. We know Patti is keen to work closely with the Kerry Deaf community. We look forward to welcoming Patti & working with her in 2018.
