THANK YOU TO THE HSE FOR 'CHILDREN FIRST' TRAINING.

We would like to thank the Health Service Executive (HSE) for enabling our staff avail of Children First training this week.

The aim of the online programme is to raise awareness and increase knowledge of child protection and child welfare issues.

The training also helps to clarify personal, legal and organisational roles and responsibilities in recognising, responding to and reporting child protection and welfare concerns. These are set out in the policy document Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2011).

The programme is part of a suite of resources which the HSE has developed to ensure the HSE & organisations they provide funding to, are compliant with the Children First Act 2015, when it becomes fully operational on the 11th of December 2017.
