UPCOMING INTERNATIONAL EVENTS IN 2019.

As we close up for our holidays for the month of August, we have all been thinking about activities to occupy our free time and of course travels near & far.

It also reminded us of a selection of international events in 2019 that may be of interest to you. Interestingly, all these events are on in July in France & a short flight for us all.

CLIN D'OEIL FESTIVAL- REIMS FRANCE (4TH-7TH OF JULY 2019).

The Clin d'Oeil Festival celebrates sign language in all its diversity, culture & artistic forms. Events will include live performances, street theatre, a film competition, musical & signed concerts, exhibitions including visual arts, educational & artistic workshops, as well as research & development relevant to the cultural heritage of deaf people through seminars, conferences & professional meetings.

CODALOVE- FONTAINEBLEAU FRANCE (11TH- 14TH JULY 2019).

A conference for adult CODAs (children of deaf adults) will take place in Fontainebleau which is about 1 hour outside of Paris. This event is being hosted by CODA

France and will see CODAs from across the world come to celebrate their unique linguistic & cultural heritage. The theme for the conference will be CODALove.

WASLI CONFERENCE- PARIS FRANCE (15TH- 19TH JULY 2019).

World Association of Sign Language Interpreters

The World Association of Sign Language Interpreters Conference Honouring the Past, Treasuring the Present Shaping the Future will celebrate the collaboration of interpreters and deaf communities around the world. It will be held in Paris, France.

WFD CONGRESS- PARIS FRANCE (23RD- 27TH JULY 2019).

Finally, the World Federation of the Deaf will also host their congress in Paris. The theme for 2019 is Sign Language Rights for All. Information on all these
