KILLARNEY CHURCH COLLECTIONS- VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED.

Our Centre will be holding Church Collections in Killarney this Saturday night and Sunday morning (17th & 18th of November).

We are looking for volunteers to cover Churches in Killarney town Centre and in Muckcross. If you are interested, please contact Noreen, Therese, Sandra or Jacquelyn in our office. They will also have information on the Church locations and Mass times.

'DEAFHEAR' NAME CHANGED TO 'CHIME'.

Deafhear is an organisation that many of you are familiar with across Ireland. Following a consultation process, Deafhear has decided to change its name to Chime.

As part of its rebrand, Chime's remit will be the National Charity for Deafness and Hearing Loss. For more information, go to www.chime.ie

UPCOMING EVENTS IN CORK WITH ISL ACCESS.

Our friends in Cork would like to inform you of a number of events that are coming up that will have Irish Sign Language (ISL) access.

The 1st event will be the 'Switching On Of Christmas Lights'. It will take place on Sunday, the 18th of November at 6.30pm. In addition to ISL interpreter access, special guests on the night will include the Cork Community Deaf Choir. It promises to be a great festive night. All are welcome !!

Hurling Poetry with ISL interpreter access will take place on Sunday, 25th of November in the Kino, Washington St, Cork.

Set to a silent backdrop of hurling footage, local Cork writers will read poems and short fiction about hurling and camogie.

Writers so far include Bernadette Gallagher, Billy Ramsell, Colm Scully, Bernadette McIntyre, Daw Harding, Eugene O'Connell, GMC and John Fitzgerald. The event will take place from 3.30pm-5.30pm. Further information can be found at: <http://www.obheal.ie/blog/winter-warmer-festival-2018/>
