MOTHER FATHER DEAF- TV DOCUMENTARY.

RTE will be showing a documentary “Mother Father Deaf” on Thursday, the 14th of March at 10.15pm on RTE One. The producers promise that this programme will be a touching and informative one-off special looking at the lives of people who were born into deaf families.

Three CODAs (children of deaf adults) - Laura O’Grady (Dublin), Shane O’Reilly (Dublin) and Catherine White (Tralee) open up about what it was like to grow up in such a household. Some of the parents also get the opportunity to reflect on their experiences and how they think it shaped their children.

CODA UK & IRELAND DAY IN LIMERICK.

Just a gentle reminder of the “CODA Wellbeing Day” which will be held in Limerick on Saturday, the 23rd of March.

The event is being organised by CODA UK & Ireland and will be held in the Deaf Community Centre (DCC) from 10.30am- 5.30pm. The event is open to CODA’s over 18 years of age.

This will be a fantastic opportunity to meet other fellow CODA’s. It will also include a CODA related presentation, workshops, a member & volunteers forum including how to get involved in CODA UK/Ireland and the day will end off with an evening meal & social. If you would like more information, you can email info@codaireland.co.uk or to register go to www.tinyurl.com/irelandcodawellbeing

MOTHER FATHER DEAF DAY- FAMILY PICNIC.

“Mother Father Deaf Day” will be celebrated again this year on Sunday the 28th of April with a ‘Family Picnic’ in Deaf Village Ireland (DVI).

The event will run from 1pm-6pm and will include the following:

- 1). Create a family bunting.
- 2). Family mass at 1pm.
- 3). Picnic at 2pm.
- 4). Family games at 3pm.
- 5). Family swim from 4-5.30pm.

This was a hugely successful event last year and promises to be a great day out again this year. Admission is free. Don’t forget to bring your own picnic & blanket.
